JI Service Providers List

(last updated 26-09-2005, version 14.0)

In this document you can find contact details of companies specialised in JI services such as:

1. Preparing Project Design Documents, emission reduction forecasts and monitoring protocols. Contact details for companies who can offer these services can be found below. Note that your choice of company is not limited to the listed companies below.
2. Validation and verification of project designs, baselines of emission reduction. Contact details for companies who can offer these services can be found on cdm.unfccc.int/DOE/AEnewMeth

EBRD has selected a number of companies that in our opinion should be able to deliver services mentioned under 1. The names of these companies are listed below.

Do you think your company should be on this list? Check the rules for listing below.

1. Listing is free of charge.
2. Before listing, you need to submit evidence of capacity, by means of minimal five principal deliveries achieved or projects realised in the past three years. Evidence will be assessed by the EBRD.
3. The EBRD holds the right to refuse requests to be listed and also holds the right to remove companies from the list.
4. The EBRD does not hold any responsibility and is not liable for activities carried out by listed companies.
5. Listing does not mean that the EBRD recognises the quality of the company's services. The listing is not an accreditation service.
6. Listed companies should keep the EBRD updated on changed data, contact persons, co-ordinates. EBRD will check the data every six months. In case data turn up outdated, EBRD will remove the entry from the list.
7. An entry in the list includes:
 - company name
 - address, country
 - contact person
 - direct phone
 - direct fax
 - direct e-mail
 - URL
