

The heads of the world's largest Multilateral Development Banks will meet on November 30th to discuss how to boost climate finance in support of a new international agreement and sustainable development pathways.

Join us in a two-part moderated discussion on how Multilateral Development Banks will mobilize and deploy climate finance in developing countries.

November 30th, 2015 | 5.30-7.15 pm | OECD Pavilion (Paris Le Bourget)

Don't miss this unique chance to hear our key speakers:

- Akinwumi Adesina, President, African Development Bank Group (AfDB)
- Takehiko Nakao, President, Asian Development Bank (ADB)
- Sir Suma Chakrabarti, President, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)
- Werner Hoyer, President, European Investment Bank (EIB)
- Luis Alberto Moreno, President, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)
- Jim Yong Kim, President, World Bank Group (WBG)

This panel will be followed by a discussion with Vice Presidents from the Multilateral Development Banks on how we can scale up implementation to deliver on the Paris agreements, and the role that policy and finance play in making the transition to a low carbon resilient economy.
