

EBRD
Literature
Prize

Submission form

UK-based publishers with a UK ISBN are invited to submit translated books of literary fiction originally written in any language, whether official or minority, of an EBRD country of operations*.

To be considered for the competition, books must have been published in English translation in the UK, for the first time, between 1 October 2016 and 30 September 2017.

The deadline for submission for this year's competition is 31 October 2017.

*www.ebrd.com/where-we-are

Sara Caputo
Office of the Secretary General
EBRD
One Exchange Square
London EC2A 2JN

Please fill in the information requested below and email it to Literatureprize@ebrd.com, or submit a hard copy along with the book copies, by the deadline. In addition, five hard copies of each work submitted should be sent to the postal address indicated.

Please note that these copies will not be returned.

Publisher

Postal address

Contact person

Title

Telephone

Email

UK ISBN

Book title

Author

Translator

Brief description of the book

Brief plot summary

Brief statement as to why this book merits consideration

Brief biographic details of the author and translator

Publishers may submit only one book per EBRD country of operations. However, the same publisher may submit a number of books if each book comes from a different country of operations. Please fill in a separate form for each book submitted for consideration. Any additional queries on the terms and conditions of the competition should be sent to Literatureprize@ebrd.com. Please ensure that your submission meets the eligibility criteria.