MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
UNITED NATIONS (UN)
AND
EUROPEAN BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT (EBRD)

WHEREAS the United Nations, represented by the Office on Drugs and Crime (hereinafter referred to as “UNODC”) has the mandate to assist Member States to implement drug policy and crime programmes in an integrated manner, addressing the interrelated issues of illicit drugs, controlled medicines, crime prevention and international terrorism in the context of sustainable development and human security. UNODC is also the guardian of the only legally binding, universal, anti-corruption instrument - the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC). The need to promote the active participation of individuals and groups outside the public sector, such as civil society and the private sector, in the prevention of and the fight against corruption and to raise public awareness regarding the existence, causes and gravity of and the threat posed by corruption is explicitly recognized in Articles 12 and 13 of the UNCAC. Non-state actors are a crucial partner for UNODC in the implementation of corruption related programs and projects, as well as key stakeholders in the international debate on anti-corruption and the effective implementation of the UNCAC and its review mechanism;

WHEREAS the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, hereinafter referred to as “EBRD” has the mandate to promote transition towards market economies that are competitive, inclusive, well-governed, environmental friendly, resilient and integrated. As a public institution established to foster transition towards well-functioning markets by focusing on private sector development, the EBRD seeks to promote good governance in a comprehensive manner, including on issues related to political governance, economic governance as well as corporate governance. In 2014 the EBRD launched the Investment Climate and Governance Initiative (ICGI) with the aim to support successful transition to well-functioning markets through the promotion of effective and accountable institutions of economic governance, inclusiveness and transparency. In this context, the EBRD recognizes the key role of civil society in promoting public dialogue and public oversight of investment projects and other development activities. For the successful implementation of the ICGI, the EBRD aims to build strong partnerships with other multilateral development organisations and intergovernmental organisations, civil society and the business community;

WHEREAS UNODC and EBRD (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Parties”) share common objectives with regard to their commitment to addressing the interrelated issues of preventive measures of corruption, building and strengthening well-governed, integrated and inclusive economies; and to facilitate collaboration between United Nations (UN) entities, national authorities, private sector, general public and civil society on good governance and economic empowerment, and wish to collaborate to further these common goals and objectives within their respective mandates and governing rules and regulations;

WHEREAS the Parties collaborated in enhancing the capacity of civil society on anti-corruption and good governance as well as disseminating standards for integrity and related guidelines for the business community in the Western Balkans (project implementation between 2016 and 2019);

WHEREAS the Parties intend to conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as “MoU”) with the aim of consolidating, developing and detailing their cooperation and effectiveness to achieve the common objectives in the field of good governance.
NOW THEREFORE THE PARTIES HAVE AGREED TO COOPERATE UNDER THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING AS FOLLOWS:
